Review Summary

- Students are well behaved and participate in extra-curricular activities that cater to their personal interests and preferences. The school supports this with a range of guidance programmes and projects.
- The school has a conscious leadership that strives to improve school performance and collaborates appropriately with parents and local community organisations to enhance students' educational and technical experiences.
- The school provides appropriate personal support for students, enriches their experiences, enhances their harmony together in school life, and supports their innovative projects.
- The school needs to focus its efforts on developing teachers' professional training programmes and monitoring their performance in lessons, especially regarding the use of effective teaching strategies.
- The school should make more efforts to improve students' academic standards and support their progress in core and specialised subjects, as well as general culture subjects, especially for the low achieving.
- The school will draft an Action Plan based on the review recommendations. It will be scheduled for a monitoring visit.
