Review Summary

- The students prosper in an exemplary, engaging, and stimulating learning environment. They eagerly participate in activities and events, gaining diverse life experiences and skills. This has enhanced their integration into school life, strengthened their national and Islamic values, and deepened their awareness of societal issues.
- The school's leadership prioritise students' academic and personal development. This is achieved through continuous updates to processes and flexible educational management, encouraging staff to present initiatives and share experiences, with fruitful cooperation from parents.
- The school enhances students' standards by offering targeted academic support programmes tailored to their educational needs. These initiatives have bolstered their learning and elevated their standards towards excellence.
- Teachers possess extensive experience in their disciplines and employ outstanding teaching strategies. The school is committed to enhancing their performance by offering various training workshops
- The school is "Outstanding" when reviewed and will develop an Action Plan based on the review recommendations.
