Review Summary

- Delmon Academy for Computer and Managerial Sciences (DACMS)'s success in maintaining its 'Outstanding' status is attributed to the leadership's strong commitment to self-assessment, close performance monitoring, and continuous improvement of the quality of its provision.
- DACMS delivers high-quality training through implementing purposeful strategies and rigorous assessments, leveraged by tailored support and targeted training opportunities that meet the individual learner's needs.
- Learners prosper in a positive and stimulating learning environment, which has supported most of them in acquiring proficient vocational knowledge and skills, enabling the vast majority to successfully achieve their qualifications on time.
- To sustain its outstanding performance, the Academy should implement more effective initiatives to ensure business continuity, while enhancing skill proficiency among a few learners more efficiently.
- DACMS has been rated 'Outstanding' in all aspects and will develop an action plan to maintain its high performance based on the review recommendations.
