Review Summary

- Khadija Al-Kubra Intermediate Girls School is the oldest girls' school in the Kingdom of Bahrain, distinguished by its heritage character, small number of students, and a stimulating, supportive learning environment. Students experience the richness of history and the depth of values, exhibit exemplary behaviour, demonstrate profound respect for peers and teachers, and actively engage in diverse school activities that enhance their skills and talents. The school embraces their extensive and varied participation in the school life.
- School leadership demonstrates a high level of awareness, and prioritises accurate self-evaluation processes and strategic planning. The school adopts continuous development through a comprehensive operational system, which has contributed to the sustained implementation of outstanding educational practices.
- The school provides purposeful training programmes for its staff, ensuring their professional development. This has contributed to students achieving outstanding performance in most lessons, particularly in mathematics, science, and Arabic.
- The school offers exceptional academic support programmes that meet students' diverse learning needs, which have significantly elevated their academic performance.
- The school is 'Outstanding' when reviewed and will draft an Action Plan based on the review recommendations.
