Review Summary

- The school is an exemplary and stimulating learning environment, where students participate in class and extracurricular activities that consolidate their talents and personalities.
- The school is managed by an aware leadership that believes in development and collaborative work, and cooperates productively with parents, local educational institutions, and takes part in international events. Additionally, the school offers well-structured academic support programmes, which have contributed to students achieving high academic standards.
- The school provides comprehensive personal care for various categories of students. This contributes to enriching their experiences, enhancing their creativity and innovation, and promoting their integration into school life, while reinforcing national and Islamic values.
- The school seeks to elevate the teachers' performance through experience-sharing and training workshops aligned with the latest educational developments. This has enabled teachers to apply highly productive strategies in the vast majority of lessons across all levels.
- The school is 'Outstanding' when reviewed, and it will draft an Action Plan based on the review recommendations.
