Review Summary

- 'Ruqaya Primary Girls School' provides a distinguished, engaging, and supportive learning environment, where students demonstrate self-discipline and proper behaviour. They receive excellent education and enjoy the various school activities that enhance their experiences and talents.
- The school's leadership is highly aware of the schoolwork priorities and its plans are closely monitored both technically and practically. The school encourages its staff to excel and innovate and adopts an accurate and efficient institutional approach.
- Students' academic standards are outstanding as they are provided with distinguished academic and personal support programmes, which highlight students' high self-confidence and great ability to assume responsibility for their learning.
- The school benefits from the distinguished expertise of the staff in presenting effective training programmes, which have resulted in outstanding teaching practices in most lessons, particularly in class teaching.
- The school is rated 'Outstanding' when reviewed and it will develop an Action Plan based on the review recommendations.
