Part 5*Questions 21 – 25

Read the text about stamps.

For each question, choose the correct answer A, B, C or D.

Stamps

Have you ever written a letter? Do you know how your grandparents communicated with their family before email replaced the need to buy a stamp? Read here how postage stamps entered our lives.

So what is a stamp? It is a small piece of paper, usually with a picture of a king or queen. The price of the stamp is displayed on the front. One side of the stamp is sticky. This helps to stick the stamp onto an envelope. It shows that you have paid the postal service to deliver your letter.

Before we had stamps, it wasn't the person sending the letter who paid, but the person receiving. Some people said they couldn't afford to pay, and some people refused to take delivery because they wanted to know who the letter was from. This meant that you didn't know whether your family or friend had received it.

The history of stamps moved quickly. By 1869 almost every country had their own stamps, but it had only started in the UK in 1840 with a stamp which cost one penny. After that Switzerland and Brazil introduced stamps for local use in 1843. Then, in 1847, the USA introduced stamps which could be used for up to 300 miles. An amazing story!

At the beginning stamps were square shaped, but soon countries began to experiment. In the USA they produced a cool stamp in the shape of a circle. It showed an amazing picture of the Earth. Sierra Leone produced a fantastic fruit shaped stamp. The strangest stamp, however, came from America. It was made of plastic.

Some stamps are very expensive. Some people collect stamps for their beautiful designs. Others like them for their historical value. It is, of course, the rare ones which attract extraordinary prices. Interestingly, one stamp, which cost so little to print, was sold for $2.3 million. Its value came from a mistake in the design!

- 0 The main purpose of this article is to explain
- A how letters were written.
  - B how email replaced stamps.
  - C how we started using stamps.
  - D how older people used to communicate.
- 21 The reason for using stamps is to
- A show a picture of the king or queen of a country.
  - B pay for the letter to reach its destination.
  - C display the price of the stamp.
  - D stick the envelope together.
- 22 Before stamps were used, people
- A accepted letters only from family and friends.
  - B thought letters were too expensive to send.
  - C paid to receive letters.
  - D refused to deliver letters.
- 23 When did stamps become fully international?
- A 1840
  - B 1843
  - C 1847
  - D 1869

24 According to the writer, which stamp was the most surprising?

- A the one made of plastic
- B the one in the shape of fruit
- C the one in the shape of a circle
- D the one with a picture of the Earth

25 What makes some stamps much more expensive than others?

- A the attractive design
- B their historical value
- C how much it cost to print
