Pause 5''

F Hello, can you tell me what kinds of things the dolphins do in the show? Do they just swim around?

M Well, actually you will see them dancing with each other. Last year we trained them to play with a ball – like a football game but people who were standing too close used to get wet.

F Right, will the dolphins jump through hoops?

M No madam, I'm afraid they won't.

Pause 2''

The dolphins will dance in the show, so there is a circle around the letter B.

F: Ok. Let me check. Yes, Mr Mohamed Yousif, a family room for 6 nights. That would be room 41 on the fourth floor. Here is your key and a welcome letter. If you need anything you can call me on 421.

F: Ok, then, I'll have the mexican chicken soup, and a steak, well-done, please.

M: Would you like to have french fries with it?

M: But we have big plans for today. We should be going on a special fishing trip at 9.00. Can you let him know I am waiting?

Good morning everyone. I would like to share my experience with you on how I had a dream and then made it happen. My name is Elham, I was born in the UAE, but I grew up in the USA, and am now living in the UK. In 2010, I became the first Arab woman to ski cross-country to reach the North Pole.

I needed to be very fit. I spent many hours building up my strength to practise pulling heavy equipment and supplies. Surprisingly, many people were interested in watching my training routine. The boring hours in the gym were lonely. However, part of my training involved pulling tyres, in public parks. This got me a lot of attention. Indeed, it was much more than when I jumped into an ice hole in a frozen lake, with only my trainer for company!

We set off on skis from an ice platform at a Russian base. It was a challenging distance! The plan was to ski 100 miles; however, I nearly gave up after skiing 40 miles. In the end, I skied 80 miles, pulling 41-kilograms of supplies. There were two guides and three other assistants, but I carried all my own food and equipment. Even though I was fully prepared, the extreme cold and rough conditions of the Arctic caused me a lot of pain. Every part of my body felt the stress. My bones hurt from the continuous skiing -- eight hours a day with hardly any breaks. Can you believe my feet felt like pieces of ice? I was too cold to feel my fingers, and I didn't want to take my gloves off in order to eat and drink, but if I didn't eat, I would have fainted.

I had to learn very quickly. I also learned an important lesson: never to wake up your sleeping guide! One night, after he helped me to put up my tent in freezing conditions, I woke to a loud noise outside. I was so frightened I thought it was a polar bear. So I woke up my guide and asked him about the noise. It was a flag blowing in the wind. He was not happy!

Arriving at last at the North Pole was brilliant. I was so happy to take my skis off one last time and stick them into the snow. I proudly threw down some sand which I had brought from my home country. Most of all, I had done what I had planned to do, discovered my strengths and found peace.

So, ladies and gentlemen, nothing is impossible. Your success depends....(fades)
