Review Summary

- The International School of Choueifat provides an inclusive and stimulating environment where students excel in both academic achievement and personal growth.
- The school's strong leadership team sets a clear vision that promotes innovation, collaboration and continuous improvement.
- Teaching is of very high quality, with lessons that are well planned, engaging and responsive to students' needs. Students make excellent progress over time and achieve highly in both SABIS regional assessments and external examinations, including the International General Certificate of Secondary Education (IGCSE), Advanced Placement (AP) and SAT.
- Students' personal skills and wellbeing are exceptional. They are confident, respectful and responsible, taking part in leadership, cultural and community activities through the 'Student Life Organisation' (SLO).
- Further refinement of classroom support is needed to ensure that all students, particularly those who are low achieving make steady and consistent progress within lessons.
- The school is 'Outstanding' when reviewed with notable strengths across all aspects. It will draft an Action Plan to sustain its strength and address the recommendation given.
