- The school needs to make greater efforts to raise students' standards and develop their basic skills, particularly the writing skills, and implement support programmes that meet their diverse educational needs.
- The school needs to improve administrative and teaching practices by providing more effective professional development programmes for teachers, monitoring their classroom practices - especially in some Class Teaching and English lessons - and focusing on developing teaching methods, while making better use of learning time, implementing effective assessment activities, and utilising their results to support students and challenge their abilities.
