Review Summary

- Fahss Training Centre (FTC) provides a generally positive and supportive training environment that engages most learners. Trainers effectively apply their practical expertise and assessment-for-learning strategies, enabling the majority of learners to acquire relevant practical skills and achieve programme requirements.
- The Centre delivers mainly short-duration programmes focused on operational and safety-critical areas, with a large proportion of externally accredited provision. Assessment practices encompass both practical and theoretical components, though internal verification and moderation processes have only been recently implemented and require further consistency and enhancement.
- The leadership team maintains a clear strategic direction supported by appropriate operational oversight and recent quality assurance initiatives. However, most practices are newly implemented, and their effectiveness remains at an early stage, particularly in relation to self-assessment and performance data analysis.
- Overall, FTC has been rated as 'Satisfactory' and will develop an action plan to further enhance its performance based on the review recommendations.
